POSTING FOR NON-CERTIFIED PERSONS ON CALL

NON-CERTIFIED PERSONS ON CALL REQUIRED for the 2017-2018 SCHOOL YEAR

Captain Meares Elementary Secondary School

In situations when a Teacher Teaching on Call is unavailable, the District must employ a non-certified Person on Call to fill the need on a day-by-day basis.

The non-certified Person on Call would be expected to:

- a. report for duty thirty (30) minutes prior to school opening in the morning, if sufficient notice is provided;
- b. meet with the Principal, or a teacher, to determine the teaching assignment and other educational service that will be required;
- c. provide appropriate instruction to students using the materials and lesson plans provided by the regular teacher;
- d. strive to achieve appropriate behavior and conduct of students, in a manner that is consistent with school guidelines and learning expectations;
- e. provide such assistance as is necessary for the supervision of students on school premises or at other school events;
- f. provide the Principal with a report, at the conclusion of the day, noting activities completed, including a summary of the progress made by students.

The non-certified Person on Call must be available on short notice. The rate of pay is $160 per day and pro-rated for part days. Employment is subject to an approved criminal record check.
